

APPOINTMENT TYPES:

Standard Tutoring Session

In these sessions, I provide personalized tutoring in math, chemistry, general science, reading, writing, and social studies. Grades 1-10.

Study Skills

In these sessions, we will focus on developing study skills that will benefit your student for the rest of their academic career and beyond. We will focus on developing the following skills: note-taking, time-management, writing agendas, how to focus well independently, etc.

Advanced Writing Skills

This session will help develop your student's writing abilities. I will provide one-on-one specialized training with a feedback structure that will take your student's writing to the next level. Open to all grades/levels.

AP Exam Prep

Does your student need specialized help preparing for their AP Test in U.S. History, World History, Literature, or Writing? I will provide specialized tutoring in both content and exam-taking strategies (i.e. DBQ, FRQ, Short Answer, Multiple-Choice, etc.)

College Essay Writing

Is your student in the process of applying to colleges? Do you want their application to stand out? Do you want your student to be competitive with Ivy League schools? In our specialized sessions, I will work with you on honing the perfect college essays that will show your student off and make them stand out to an admissions committee.

Public Speaking and Interview Skills

Are you looking to improve your public speaking? Do you have an interview coming up that you want to nail? Is it difficult for you to fully express who you are to others in a formal setting? In these sessions, I will use theater-techniques to improve your to articulate, be present in front of other, lead with confidence, and enjoy speaking in front of a crowd. I will also address interview tactics that will help you succeed in any interview (how to answer questions, how to ask the right questions, etc.) Open to all ages.

Singing Skills

Looking to work on developing your voice? Hoping to learn vocal technique that will expand your range and deepen your musical abilities? In these sessions, we will work on standard musical theater repertoire to improve technique, musicality, and performance skills. Grades 6-12.

Acting for the Stage

Working on a monologue? Want to stand out in your school's auditions? Are you applying to a BFA program in Acting or Musical Theater? These sessions will meet you at your level and work to improve your acting skills for the stage. Grades 6-12.